Report : Session by Mr. Anand Neelakantan (author of Asura: Tale of the Vanquished)

Date : 10 August, 2024

Venue : Sunbeam Bhawanpur College

Students had the privilege of attending an engaging session with Mr. Anand Neelakantan, the bestselling author of Asura: Tale of the Vanquished. Known for his unique storytelling and fresh perspectives on mythology, Mr. Neelakantan shared his inspiring life journey, offering glimpses into his experiences in the literary world.

During his talk, Mr. Neelakantan emphasized the importance of pursuing one's passions and remaining steadfast in the face of challenges. Drawing from his own life, he highlighted how dedication, resilience, and an unyielding belief in oneself can turn dreams into reality. He encouraged students to explore their creative potential and embrace unconventional paths in their careers.

The session was highly interactive and motivational, leaving students inspired to chart their own paths. Mr. Neelakantan also discussed the intricacies of writing, including the challenges of breaking into the publishing industry and the art of weaving compelling narratives. The event concluded with an engaging Q&A segment, where students eagerly posed questions about his writing process, sources of inspiration, and tips for budding authors. Mr. Neelakantan responded with warmth and insight, providing valuable advice and encouragement, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.
