Report : Session by Mr. Vaibhav Anand Sharma (AIR-58, UPSC)

Date : 10 August, 2024

Venue : Melody

The Start-Up and Career Guidance Club of Sunbeam Women's College Varuna organized an insightful session titled "From Aspirants to Achievers: Success Formula for UPSC," featuring the esteemed Mr. Vaibhav Anand Sharma, AIR-58 in the UPSC exams. An alumnus of IIM Lucknow, Mr. Sharma successfully transitioned from the corporate world to the prestigious Indian Administrative Service (IAS), inspiring countless aspirants with his determination and strategic approach.

During the session, Mr. Sharma candidly shared his remarkable journey, beginning with his motivation to shift from a business-oriented career to public service. He elaborated on the challenges he faced while preparing for one of the toughest competitive exams in India and the resilience required to overcome them. Addressing the audience, he emphasized the importance of consistent hard work, effective time management, and a focused approach to studying the vast UPSC syllabus.

He highlighted the value of understanding current affairs, revising regularly, and practicing answer writing. Additionally, he addressed the significance of mental health and staying motivated throughout the long preparation journey.

The session was highly interactive, with Mr. Sharma encouraging questions from students. Aspirants enthusiastically sought his guidance on overcoming self-doubt, staying disciplined, and managing setbacks during the preparation phase.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks and a sense of inspiration among attendees, who left with a clearer understanding of the path to success in the UPSC exams. Mr. Sharma's insights and personal experiences served as a guiding light for students aiming to achieve excellence in civil services.
